

Smaller hotels gain extra strength by acting together

on January 23rd 2010

MOST Irish hoteliers remember November for the devastating Bacon Report and its conclusions that their sector was desperately "insolvent" and needed to shed a quarter of its rooms to avoid collapse.